MEDIA RELEASE

HAPPY NEW YEAR, WISHING YOU A PROSPEROUS & HEALTHY 2021

ACCF is pleased to announce the Annual ACCF Chinese New Year Celebration Dinner will be held on Sunday, 21 February 2021 at Marigold Restaurant to celebrate the Year of the Ox. Regrettably, we are not able to offer ticket sales to the wider community and all our ACCF members due to COVID-19 Restrictions on Gathering and Movement in accordance with the NSW Public Health Order (no. 7) 2020.

2020 was a challenging year for all whether in Australia or elsewhere around the world. The not-for-profit sector had been particularly hit hard by the COVID-19 pandemic. In order to pursue our Mission to help those in need, ACCF will take this opportunity to launch a new Sponsorship programme with corresponding advertising benefits. We also appeal to individuals to make donation pledges. The minimum pledge under this programme is $3,000 per annum (all donations to ACCF $2 or more are tax deductible)

The Foundation welcome and expressed sincere gratitude for the support ACCF received from various corporate and individual sponsors/donors. To date, the following sponsors/donors have agreed to go into partnership with ACCF to support this programme:
