MEDIA RELEASE

ACCF Bushfire Emergency Relief Appeal

ACCF would like to take this opportunity to announce that the ACCF Bushfire Emergency Relief Appeal is now closed. We are very thankful for the support of our members, friends, corporations and many community groups.

It is good news to learn that all bushfires in the state of NSW are now confined and volunteers from the NSW Rural Fire Service are able to return to their families and work routines. As previously mentioned our Appeal focuses on direct assistance to families and communities affected by bushfires. In the aftermath of this disaster, the funds raised by the Appeal will be used for recovery and rebuilding communities. It is our wish that our small donation will make a difference to those who are affected by this catastrophe.

We are pleased to inform you that the total donations received were $171,874. The same amount was remitted to the Salvation Army. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all donors and in particular our major donors including corporations, community organisations and individuals who had donated $5,000 and beyond:

- National Australia Bank
- Indochinese Aged Care Services
- Sydney Jiangmen Wuyi Business Association
- National Auto Glass Supplies Pty Ltd
- Australian Taiwan Women's Association
- Forcast
- Dr Dominic & Mrs Cecilia Pak

Last but not the least, we also commend other community groups/organisations that have rallied together to raise funds for various support groups such as NSW Rural Fire Service, Koala Hospital and other deserving organisations.

This year marks the 30th Anniversary of ACCF; a formal gala event was planned on 17 October at the Fullerton Hotel. Regrettably, due to the outbreak of Coronavirus the management committee of ACCF had decided to postpone the event to next year.
